

LEARNING FOR WORK AND LIFE

Join us to brainstorm innovative teaching methods to prepare university students for the rapidly-evolving world of work.

THIS VIRTUAL MEETING WILL GIVE YOU THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

- Reflect on the skills and attributes that students need for work and life.
- Identify learning experiences that facilitate those skills and attributes.
- Explore ways of integrating those experiences into the core curriculum.
- Share best practice with other members who teach skills for life and work.
- Brainstorm ways to overcome institutional barriers and constraints.
- Benefit from practical advice from a Work-Integrated Learning expert.

We are delighted to be joined by keynote speaker:
